

Job Title: Validation Engineer - MotorDepartment: Technology*Responsibilities & Must have:

- Develop and execute validation test plans for PMSM (Part & System Level).
- Perform and assist the testing team on performance testing including torque-speed, efficiency, and power measurements.
- Conduct thermal analysis and validate motor behavior under continuous and peak load conditions.
- Carry out endurance and reliability testing such as life cycle and thermal cycling tests.
- Analyze test data and prepare detailed validation and performance reports.
- Validate motor performance against design specifications and technical requirements.
- Identify issues such as overheating, vibration, noise, and losses.
- Support root cause analysis (RCA) and implement corrective actions.
- Work closely with design and testing teams for continuous improvements.
- Document test procedures, results, and validation reports systematically.
- Assist in DFMEA / PFMEA and continuous product improvement activities.

Added Advantage:

- Awareness of industry standards (IEC, ISO and automotive standards).